

Resourceful Squirrel

A learner who is resourceful:

- asks questions
- makes connections and links between events and experiences
- uses their imagination to explore possibilities
- wonders 'what if...?'
- uses reasoning to work logically and methodically – breaking things down into smaller steps
- uses a range of resources appropriately

'Choose the best way to help you learn today.'