10. If I had to suggest one thing the school was really good at, it would be ...

These answers were in text format and therefore very varied. These have been analysed by senior leaders and shared with governors. Many strengths were identified. The most common answers included references to:

- Additional organised events such as themed events, trips, residential, visitors, special events
- The wide range of extra-curricular opportunities
- Quality of teaching
- Caring and nurturing aspect of school, including knowing children as individuals
- Inclusion

11. If I had to suggest one thing the school could do better, it would be ...

As above, these answers were in text format and therefore very varied. These have been analysed by senior leaders and shared with governors. There were some suggestions made for future improvements which have been given full consideration and will be addressed proportionally. The most common answers were:

- Not able to make a suggestion, can't think of anything, school does a good job
- Online payments to be rectified
- A better system required for paying for trips
- Use of a parent app
